

K-Love has served us in our daily spiritual walk by providing inspiration and spiritual nourishment through its music, content and messages. If K-Love is taken off the air, our community would suffer a great loss of a premiere provider of positive content. K-Love provides a useful channel to spread positive and encouraging messages to a general public who could use a refreshing change in what hits their ears.